

Amy Thorn, Winemaker/Owner, Thorn Hill Vineyards

At the turn of the millennium, with passion and a dream, and twenty years of experience studying, exploring and appreciating fine wines Amy Thorn took a leap of faith and together with her husband Jack founded Thorn Hill Vineyards, one of California's treasured finds as a boutique winery.

Amy is one of an elite group of female winemakers that have helped transform the way California wines are made. Her unique style balances intellect with intuition. She is committed to quality with a guiding principle that all her wines reflect their distinctive terroir and embody the hallmark characteristics of each varietal. Every wine she produces is 100% varietal pure and is bottled unfined and unfiltered. No collection is complete without the rare wines of Thorn Hill Vineyards.
